Reviewers' comments:

"I recommend that NAHN formally support this resolution. It aligns perfectly with our mission to advocate for Hispanic nurses and health equity. Recognizing September 22 as National Hispanic Nurses Day not only honors our members but strengthens NAHN's visibility as a national leader. While it is a symbolic resolution, it creates a foundation for ongoing advocacy and public engagement. We should consider using this day to promote policy priorities, workforce diversity, and leadership opportunities for Hispanic nurses nationwide."
